Adoption not being recognised by the mohomedan law, Ahmed Khan cannot claim as the son of the deceased pensioner Sadati Boyce. He can only get a fourth like his other three brothers under the mohomedan law. There seem to exist some children of Sadati Boyce's sisters, but they being only distant kindreds are excluded by the her brothers, who though only three shares take the whole as there are no residuaries.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. Fl 3780 — dated 4th February 1910, forwarding for report a petition presented by one Ahmad Khan of Sarfaraz Jahagir Family, praying for the continuance of the pension enjoyed by the late Fadata Bi who is reported to have died on 30th October 1903, I have the honor to submit herewith the connected Vernacular records and to state as follows: —

The petitioner states that Fadata Bi has no children of her own, that excluding himself she has only four brothers, namely Mohamed Ali Khan, Gulam Hussein Khan, Mohadeen Khan and Ahmad Khan. The last who is the petitioner is the youngest of these brothers and is reported to have been adopted by his late sister Jadalu Bi the deceased stipendiary and to have been living with her during her life time and on her death he is said to have inherited all her property. This fact has been corroborated by the other brothers Mohamed Ali Khan and Gulam Hussein Khan who have executed mutahilkas in support of the pension being continued in the name of the petitioner.

But the third brother Mohadeen Khan contends that, under the Mohammedan Law, adoption is not recognised and that therefore the pension should not be sanctioned to the petitioner alone. He says that the pension of his deceased sister Jadalu ... equally distributed among all the brothers and separate stipends issued in their respective names.

The fact of adoption is supported by the Nikahnamas executed by the residents of Nayer Dargah Street

Mandi Mohalla, Mysore, where the petitioner himself lives and by the people of Pargahur Nandaba, Anekal Taluk and by the other stipendiaries of Sangahur Jahagir allowances.

Under these circumstances, necessary orders may be passed regarding the distribution of the pension enjoyed by the late Sadata Bi.

I regret to state that the delay in reporting the fact of the death of Sadata Bi is due to the clerk of this office having mixed up the connected records among the file papers. The clerk has been warned this time for his carelessness.

I have the honour to be
Sir,
your most obedient servant,

Deputy Commissioner
